

Must haves for fall for babies and toddlers on the go

The leaves have turned red, orange and yellow and the air seems to get crispier (and chillier) everyday. Here's a look at some must have items perfect babies and toddlers on the go in the cooler autumn air.

Nature Discovery In My Backyard* book

($6.95, littleenvironmentalists.com)

Here's a book to help your kids appreciate nature in fall (and all other seasons). The book has "green" lessons, educational facts on plants and animals and easy-to-do outdoor activities.

This book shows you don't have to go further than your own backyard to have fun and learn something while you're at it.
